Welcome back Classy Cruisers!

I hope that you are enjoying the sun this summer! This February when the weather heads south, head south with us to Puerto Rico for our 2015 Super Bowl Extravaganza.

We are excited to announce a venue change: instead of the Radisson, we will be staying at the gorgeous Verdanza

Hotel in the Isla Verde tourism district.

Read about the luxurious accommodations, the first-class amenities, the exciting excursions, and the signature Cruisin' With Class events. Explore what makes Puerto Rico such a unique destination. This is the CWC Super Bowl event that you cannot miss!

Norma Letandre, a regular CWC cruiser, wants to share an opportunity to change your life with a water ionizing machine that hydrates and protects your body naturally. Read more inside!

And don't forget that our sponsor Bahati House is offering a 10% discount on their skincare products to CWC customers.

Celebrate the Super Bowl in San Juan

The 2015 Super Bowl Extravaganza will take you to San Juan, Puerto Rico, a city full of beautiful beaches, hot nightlife and great shopping. CWC Events and Entertainment

The stunning view at the hot restaurant and bar Oceano

Cruisin' With Class was founded largely from a frustration with predictable events and bland vacations, so you know that with a CWC vacation, you can be sure that you will have a great time!

Our Super Bowl events are always a customer favorite. Look forward to great drinks with new and old friends at our Super Bowl party. Then take part in fun group competitions like sports and games tournaments, football trivia contests and raffles.

This year, CWC has Host MC Rock, from RockdaCrowd to make this trip like no other. In addition to the Super Bowl party, we are hosting a Luau, the Shades of Red Sunset Silhouette Pool Party featuring a two-hour open bar., and a Caribbean Carnival.

All about Puerto Rico

Puerto Rico became a Commonwealth of the United States in 1952, but Puerto Rico is not a state and residents of the island have a fierce sense of independence and a distinct cultural identity.

From a practical perspective, that means travelers from the continental US can shop at familiar stores with US dollars, speak English with most island residents and travel without a passport.

In other respects, Puerto Rico is a world away from life in the continental US. For one, the influences of aboriginal Taino, West African, Latino, and American traditions come together in the unique Puerto Rican culture and cuisine that will entrance you. Moreover, Puerto Rico is a Caribbean Island with a multitude of different natural environments ranging from rainforest to withering dry forest that you won't find anywhere else. And don't forget the pristine beaches! San Juan is home to unique historical architecture, museums, shopping and nightlife.

Spotlight: Enagic® Water Ionizer

Your fellow classy cruiser Norma Letandre wants to share information about water that will change your life. Our Western diet is full of acidic food and chemicals that throw off our body's natural balance. Kangen Water® uses Japanese Enagic® technology to change the chemical properties of water. It has a pH of 8.5-9.5, which helps restore the natural alkaline balance that our cells need. Plus, it acts as an antioxidant reducing free radicals that age you from the inside. Most importantly, it hydrates more thoroughly than other beverages since it is more soluble and permeable than regular tap or bottled water.
